2006/2007 SUPER LAWYERS AND RISING STARS

Thirty-three Keesal, Young & Logan lawyers are currently listed by Los Angeles and San Francisco Magazines as Super Lawyers or Rising Stars. This rating is the result of a peer review process in which the publishers of Law & Politics survey lawyers throughout Northern and Southern California to identify the top lawyers in the state. Congratulations to our many Super Lawyers and Rising Stars!

2006 CHAMBERS GLOBAL LISTING

The firm is proud to be listed in Chambers Global, an international compendium of research on lawyers around the world, as "one of the best on the West Coast." The listing goes on to state that "some of the most prestigious companies depend on the firm's experience on maritime transportation . . ." and that the firm "earned plaudits for its excellent representation of oil and gas concerns."

Jon Zinke and Skip Keesal were singled out among the firm's "knowledgeable, hard-working" lawyers. Skip was described as "an 'exceptional' advocate, he is 'excellent in front of a jury, extremely focused and believes in preparation, preparation and more preparation.'" The listing describes Jon Zinke, resident partner of the firm's Hong Kong office, as "one of a kind. 'Learned, sympathetic and entertaining to have around,' he 'offers a service that is very difficult to get elsewhere in the region.'"
